by Al Moreno

Genre: Memoir, True Crime

Publisher : Highpoint LIT

298 pages

ISBN: 978-1734449709

L.A.'s Last Street Cop vividly recounts the career of a gifted and fearless Los Angeles police officer as he battled gangs and dealt with multiple homicidal situations on gritty city streets. Tracing his overflowing personal life and packed with atmospheric scenes of both beauty and despair, it follows his successful quest for happiness, respect and personal achievement, then culminates in his vocal stand against corruption within the L.A.P.D., and the political retribution that ensued, including a dirty internal investigation and the murderous vendetta of a violent ex-con who belonged to the Aryan Brotherhood.

A vivid, true-life tale of service, survival and sacrifice.

In 2021, the INDEPENDENT PRESS AWARD had entries worldwide. Participating authors and publishers reside in countries such as Australia, Canada, India, Ireland, Japan, Singapore, Switzerland, United Kingdom, and others. In addition, books submitted included writers located in U.S. cities such as Atlanta to Santa Fe; Chicago to New York; from Boise to Honolulu, and others.

"We congratulate this year's 2021 winners and distinguished favorites in the annual INDEPENDENT PRESS AWARD. The quality and quantity of excellent independently published books hit a record. Independents recognized are thriving around the world. We are so proud to announce these key titles representing global independent publishing." said awards sponsor Gabrielle Olczak.
